Genre Performance Analysis

Action titles accounted for 31% of all views in Q1 2025, up from 24% in Q4 2024. Sci-Fi showed the fastest growth rate at 47% YoY, with Stellar Run and Dark Orbit both contributing significantly. Comedy underperformed expectations — completion rates dropped to 55%, compared to the platform average of 71%. Post-viewing survey data suggests viewers find pacing issues and cultural misalignment as primary deterrents.

Comedy genre weakness is attributed to three factors: (1) Over-reliance on slapstick formats that resonate less with the 25-44 demographic, (2) Low marketing investment relative to other genres, (3) Poor thumbnail and metadata optimization leading to low click-through rates from recommendations.

Audience Segments

Binge-Watcher segment (22% of user base) accounts for 58% of total viewing hours. Power-Users show the highest retention at 94%. New-User activation rate improved to 67% in Q1 after onboarding UX overhaul. The 18-24 age cohort grew 41% and now represents the fastest-growing demographic.

Strategic Recommendations

1. Increase comedy content quality investment — partner with proven comedy writers and use A/B testing on formats. 2. Expand Stellar Run universe with a sequel greenlight based on strong engagement metrics. 3. Target 18-24 demographic with mobile-first content. 4. Launch regional language content for Mumbai and Toronto markets showing 40%+ engagement growth.
